By a very special arrangement The Kentuckian offers to its readers this splendid group of publications. Just enough reading matter to satisfy your wants—all at a price that is within reach of everyone. You get two weeklies, two monthlies and two semi-monthlies, not quantity but quality, as each publication is a leader and known throughout the country. They represent the best.

We consider this absolutely the biggest and best group of standard publications we have ever been able to offer our readers. Your subscription to any of the above may be new or renewal. BETTER TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OFFER TO-DAY.

NOTE:—Owing to the great scarcity and advancing costs in white paper, publishers throughout the country have advanced their rates or will do so by Jan. 1. We cannot say how long this offer will remain at this low price. We therefore advise PROMPT ACTION. Please remember the Free pattern must be selected from your first copy of McCall's. Simply select the pattern wanted and forward the order to them direct.

Babylonian Empire.

The Babylonian empire ended with the conquest of the city by Cyrus, B. C. 538. The city itself was partly destroyed by Darius Hystaspis, B. C. 500, the walls and gates being thrown down. Later Xerxes plundered and demolished the temples. Thereafter the city was neglected and unpopulated, and in time became a vast overgrown ruin. Jerome, in the year 400 A. D., writes of it as having been made a hunting park for the Persian kings. The ruins of Babylon were used as building material in the construction of at least six other cities that have sprung up since its decay. So thorough has been the destruction of the once great city that not only are the traces of its principal buildings lost, but also the very site itself is in dispute. The reference in I Peter v. 13 to Babylon is explained by the fact that Babylon was the center from which the Asiatic Dispersion (addressed by Peter) was derived. Josephus, the Jewish historian, states in his "Antiquities" that Babylon contained some 8,000 Jews in the apostolic age, the Parthians then being master of that part of Mesopotamia. —Christian Herald.

Romance and Sentiment.

Some people think that the working girl becomes coarse and unwomanly and loses her natural charm and romantic sentiment. This is not true, for the business girl not only does not have all the romance and sentiment knocked out of her by learning to do things for herself, but she is better suited to select a husband or to mate with the man with whom she will be happy than those girls who learn the practical side of life only by what they hear of the outside world and through the gossip of the narrow circle in which they move.

Handy Artificial Limbs.

The "up-to-date" artificial hand is quite a miracle of mechanism. In fact, it can do almost anything that an arm of flesh and bone can. With it a man can carry a stick, an umbrella or hold a book, etc. He can use knife and fork quite as dexterously, write with a legible hand, hold a cricket-bat or a billiard-cue, a hammer or an ax, and pick up a pin!

Those Bad Spells.

Labanon Jet., Ky.—Mrs. Minnie Kumb, of this place, says: "I believe I would have been dead by now, had it not been for Cardui. I haven't had one of those bad spells since I commenced to use this medicine." Cardui is a specific medicine for the ills from which women suffer. Made from harmless, vegetable ingredients Cardui is a safe, reliable remedy, and has been successfully used by weak and ailing women for more than fifty years. Thousands of women have been helped back to health and happiness by its use. Why not profit by their experience? A trial will convince you that Cardui is just what you need.—Advertisement.

Anecdote of the Autocrat.

A southern woman tells about dining in Boston once, when next to her sat a homely little old gentleman, who wanted to know how she passed the time in the country with her old father. "Well, we read," "What did you read?" "Chiefly 'The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.'" Don't you get tired of it?" "Oh, no. When we get to the end, we simply turn back to the beginning." The old gentleman chuckled, and made a remark implying that the "Autocrat" was no great thing among books, and the lady was rather surprised at his disparaging air. After dinner she demanded of her hostess the name of the unappreciative old gentleman, and was told that it was Doctor Holmes.

Lingering Coughs are Dangerous.

Get rid of that tickling cough that keeps you awake at night and drains your vitality and energy. Dr. King's New Discovery is a pleasant balsam remedy, antiseptic, laxative and promptly effective. It soothes the irritated membrane and kills the cold germs; your cough is soon relieved. Delay is dangerous—get Dr. King's New Discovery at once. For nearly fifty years it has been the favorite remedy for gripe, croup, coughs and colds. Get a bottle to-day at your Druggist, 50c.—Advertisement.

Reward for Pleasure.

Pleasure given for its own sake is often rewarded in financial terms. You begin to rise by your own effort. Others may inspire you and urge you to make the attempt but you must exercise your mind and your muscles or you won't get anywhere. It takes more than inspiration to make one great. Every bird learns to fly by using its own pinions. —Advertisement.

Not Quite Perfect.

In this neighborhood there is one little boy who seems so well brought up and altogether so desirable a child that for a time we felt sure the neighbor women wouldn't be able to think of anything to say, but now we understand from a reliable source that it's a perfect shame that his parents are jeopardizing his whole future by not having his teeth straightened.—Ohio State Journal.

Unique Among Magazines

Probably Joe Mitchell knows personally more famous people than any other man in the world.

—The London Daily Mail, Paris Edition

Other magazines have their place in fiction and fact, but the National with Joe Mitchell at the helm is different. Every month for twenty years he has made a trip to Washington to obtain material for his "Affairs at Washington" department. You can hear him 12 times a year through the pages of

The National Magazine and enjoy the many timely, interesting talks and special articles on the big men and affairs of the day.

The National follows no rule. It is the very life of the magazine world. It takes you over the shoulder of the nation. It sets you down suddenly face to face with a big fact. It is a magazine to human impulses. People usually like it. It "booms" life at every angle. It is not a palliative, but a dose of truth to every person—man, woman, child. No leader shows you how the Avenue will be used. Write today for a copy and see for yourself. Until you have read the magazine you don't know how to read. For $1.00, every four months, you can keep a copy of the National Magazine. Write today for a copy and see for yourself. Write today for a copy and see for yourself. College Days Not Wasted.

"Has your college education been of any practical value to you?" "You bet it has! If it wasn't for my experience in track athletics I'd have to leave my house five minutes earlier every morning in order to catch the 7:58," replied the commuter.—Michigan Awgwan.
